In This Issue

From the Dean 4

News 5

Feature Stories

Teachers turn to higher-tech 14

Environmental institute grows 16

Land gift create ecological lab 17

'University' plus 50 years 18

What 21st century students need 21

Reflections

Paul Nollen remains active, influential 24

The Real Sequel: Bob Gabler 26

Photo by Visual Production Center

WIU President Al Goldfarb (front and center) completes paperwork for a donation by Bertha Fink (left) and Rodney Fink (right), as CAS Dean Inessa Levi and Vice President for Advancement & Public Services Dan Hendricks look on.

Photo by Robert Johnson

Spring returns to campus with blooming trees and the Canada geese who nest at Lake Ruth.

Western Illinois University College of Arts and Sciences

Dean
Inessa Levi

Editor
Bill Knight

Associate editor
Jeff Dodd

Graphics and layout
Robert Johnson

Contributors
Sarah Cash, Alex Degman, John Hallwas, Renee Harmon, David Moon and Darci Shinberger

Editorial board
Bonnie L. Barker, Jeff Dodd, Sue Martinelli-Fernandez, Pam Hoffman, James A. Schmidt, Amy Spelman and Daniel L. Wise

Administration
President Al Goldfarb
Provost and Academic Vice President Jack Thomas

Western's CAS is made up of 15 departments whose disciplines span the areas of the social sciences, the humanities, mathematics and the natural sciences: African American Studies, Biological Sciences, Chemistry, English and Journalism, Foreign Languages and Literatures, Geography, Geology, History, Mathematics, Nursing, Philosophy and Religious Studies, Physics, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology and Anthropology, and Women's Studies.

Cover photo by Visual Production Center

Focus, Vol. 4, No.1; Focus is published twice a year; c/o 114 Morgan Hall, WIU, 1 University Circle, Macomb, IL 61455; e-mail BK-Knight@wiu.edu.

Printed by authority of the State of Illinois

"Focus will inform college stakeholders about College of Arts and Sciences activities and encourage their involvement in the life of the college."