

W.I.U. Mini-Conference on Secondary Mathematics
Teaching

Thursday, November 21, 2019

5 - 8 p.m.

WIU Quad Cities Campus

W.I.U. Mathematics Teacher
Mini-Conference

The Mathematics & Philosophy Department at Western Illinois University is holding a Mini-Conference on Secondary Mathematics Teaching Thursday, November 21, from 5-8 p.m. in Moline, IL on the W.I.U. – Quad Cities campus. This mini-conference is intended for grade 7-12 mathematics teachers.

The cost for this conference is $10 per person, and a light meal will be included.

This is intended to be an enjoyable evening of sharing and connecting with other professionals, without the challenges of missing school, substitutes, and long distance travel.

Website, Registration, and Information

Register online using <http://bit.ly/WIU-mini-conf-2019>

Register via Email or Print by visiting:

<http://faculty.wiu.edu/JR-Olsen/wiu/miniconf/front.html>

More information: Contact Jim Olsen (JR-Olsen@wiu.edu ~ Phone: 309-298-2317).

PD Credit

We will be awarding 2.5 hours of Professional Development Credit for this mini-conference.

Presenters

- Jim Adamson of Glenview Middle School: Taking Shop class into the 21 century - STEM and Robotics
- Jim Olsen of WIU: My Top Eight Reasons for Using Technology to Help Students Learn Mathematics, with Examples of Each

Check-in for the mini-conference will be 4:30-5:00 p.m. in room 2222 at the WIU Quad Cities Complex.

This mini-conference is held in Macomb on even years and in the Quad Cities in odd years. It is usually held on the Thursday one week prior to Thanksgiving.

Please join us for this enjoyable evening of sharing about mathematics teaching!