

International Students Count Too!

The U.S. Code and the Supreme Court state that ALL residents should be counted, including International Students. Census data is used to assign the number of seats in the House of Representatives to states. However, it is also used by people providing services, businesses and government agencies applying for grants. Thus, your participation in the Census is important! All information is confidential.

