

Creative Assignment #2

Revised due date: November 13.

Create a short scene that could be added either to Their Eyes Were Watching God or The Color Purple. The scene cannot change the plot of the novel, but it can suggest other ways of reading the characters, their motivations, and their histories.

Use the scene to provide your perspective on the novel and its characters.

Try to match the author on a stylistic level.

This assignment should reach approximately three double-spaced pages.

Jacob Lawrence, Story Painter, 1940-41
