

Queer Multiculturalism

FINAL ESSAY ASSIGNMENT

I hate arriving at a destination. — David Wojnarowicz

Due Monday, May 8, by 2:00 p.m., as a Microsoft Word attachment, uploaded to WesternOnline. If you would like to receive comments, the deadline is Friday, May 5 by midnight.

This essay should reach approximately eight pages in length. It should incorporate at least three outside sources, and at least two need to be scholarly (from databases, or the library). The essay must analyze at least one of the works discussed in class. It is not limited to literary texts.

Double-space everything. Use a standard-sized font and regular margins. Paginate and create an original title. You will need to document all of your sources, and my recommendation is that you follow MLA style. Ask me about documentation, if you have any questions.

Once crucial component of the final essay is close reading. Research should support and perhaps develop your close reading of the text(s), but it cannot replace close reading.

I am also looking for engagement with queer theory and criticism.

Please you speak with me about your project before you begin the research and the writing.
