

Introduction to Queer Studies

SELF-REFLECTIVE ESSAY ASSIGNMENT

Due Thursday, May 5 by 10:00 a.m. for comments, or Monday May 9, for grading. The essay should be sent by email as a Microsoft Word Attachment. It should reach at least three pages in length. Double-space everything. Use a standard-sized font and regular margins. Title your essay.

Reflect on what you learned in Introduction to Queer Studies and whether it has, or will, change you in some way. It might be that the course had changed the plan for your college career, that it has caused you to rethink personal relationships, or that you found nothing in the semester that assisted you in personal growth.

I would rather you go into depth on a single topic or two, rather than receive a catalog of changes.
