Directions To Service Member

What You Should Know

This insurance is granted under the Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance provisions of title 38, United States Code, and is subject to the provisions of that title and its amendments, and title 38 Code of Federal Regulations.

This form must be correctly completed, signed and received by your Uniformed Service before your death in order for this designation to be valid.

Marriage and SGLI Coverage

If you are married or you get married after completing this form, your spouse is automatically covered under Family SGLI and premiums will be deducted from your pay, unless you decline Family SGLI coverage by completing SGLV 8286A. You must register your spouse in DEERS for Family SGLI premiums to be deducted from your pay. If you do not register your spouse in DEERS, premiums cannot be deducted. This will result you owing a debt for back premiums.

Periods of Coverage

SGLI is in effect throughout the period of full-time active duty or active duty for training. Coverage is also in effect on a full-time basis for reservists who are assigned to a unit or position in which they may be required to perform active duty or active duty for training and each year will be scheduled to perform at least 12 periods of inactive duty training that is creditable for retirement purposes under Chapter 1223 of title 10, United States Code. SGLI coverage continues for 120 days following separation or release. You may convert your SGLI to Veterans' Group Life Insurance within 120 days of separation without proof of good health, or within one year and 120 days of separation with proof of good health by contacting the Office of Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance (see below).

Instructions On Completing This Form (Type or print in ink all items except where otherwise noted.)

1. Naming Beneficiaries

- a. A new SGLV-8286 must be completed to change your beneficiary. You may name anyone as beneficiary without his/her consent. However, your spouse will be notified if you reduce coverage or name a beneficiary other than your spouse.
- b. If the beneficiary is a married woman, use her given first and middle names. For example, use Mary Lisa Smith, instead of Mrs. John Smith.
- c. A named beneficiary will NOT be changed automatically by any event occurring after you complete this form (e.g. marriage, divorce, etc.). Your beneficiary cannot be changed by, and is not affected by, any other documents such as a divorce decree or will.
- d. If you want to name more than four principal or contingent beneficiaries, list the additional beneficiaries on the Beneficiary Continuation Form (page 5) and check the block under the principal or contingent blocks on page 2, indicating that you have done so. The Beneficiary Continuation Form (page 5) should then be attached to page 2 of the 8286.
- e. If you name minor children as beneficiaries, the insurance will be paid to the court-appointed guardian of the children's estate.
- f. You can establish a trust for the benefit of the children and name the trust as beneficiary. A trust names a trustee of your choice to be legally responsible for administering the insurance proceeds for the children. Naming a trust as a beneficiary on this form does NOT create a trust. Before naming a trust as beneficiary, you should consult a military attorney for assistance.

2. Social Security Number - Do not delay completing this form if you do not have a beneficiary's Social Security Number. The Social Security Number helps us to locate the beneficiary, but is not required.

3. Shares to each Beneficiary - If you name more than one beneficiary, the sum of the shares must equal 100% or the full dollar amount of your insurance.

Example:	mother	$200,000		50%		1/2
	father	$200,000	or	50%	or	1/2
	Total	$400,000		100%		1

4. Payment Option - You may choose whether you want the beneficiary to receive payment in one lump sum or in 36 equal monthly payments by writing "lump sum" or "36" in the column labeled Payment Option. If you choose 36 payments, the beneficiary cannot choose to receive a lump sum payment. If you want the beneficiary to have a choice at the time of payment, write "lump sum" or leave the block blank.

5. Provisions For Payment Of Insurance

- a. If you name more than one principal beneficiary and one or more predeceases you, the share(s) will be divided equally among the remaining principal beneficiaries, unless otherwise stated. If there are no surviving principal beneficiaries, the proceeds will be divided among the contingent beneficiaries.
- b. If you do not name a beneficiary, or if there are no surviving beneficiaries, or if you indicate that payment should be made by law, the proceeds will be paid in the following order:
 1. Widow or widower
 2. Children in equal shares (the share of any deceased child will be distributed equally among the descendants of that child)
 3. Parent(s) in equal shares or all to surviving parent
 4. A duly appointed executor or administrator of your estate
 5. Other next of kin

What You Should Know About VA Benefits

Once you enter the service, you may become eligible for a variety of benefits offered by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). These benefits include, but are not limited to the following:

Compensation & Pension

As a veteran, you may become eligible for compensation for any injuries or illnesses you incurred while on active duty or any pre-existing disabilities, which were aggravated by your service in the Armed Forces. You may also be eligible for a disability pension if you are a wartime veteran with limited income and you are no longer able to work or are age 65 or older.

Education & Training

The Montgomery GI Bill is your chance to secure a source of financial assistance for your future education and training needs. Whether you're active duty, Guard, or Reserves you may qualify for benefits. Activated Guard and Reserve members may also be eligible for the Reserve Education Assistance Program Chapter 1607. See your Education Services Officer, or Unit Administrator for more information. Some family members of disabled or deceased veterans are also eligible for education benefits.

Vocational Rehabilitation & Employment

The Vocational Rehabilitation & Employment program helps certain servicemembers and veterans who incur injuries and/or illnesses during their military service to prepare for, obtain, and keep suitable employment. Among the services offered are re-employment, rapid access to employment, self-employment assistance, employment through long term services, and independent living.

How To Contact VA

Life Insurance

You may be eligible for VA life insurance if you are injured or disabled while you are in the service and VA gives you a rating for your injury or disability. Up to $10,000 in life insurance coverage is available at standard insurance rates. If you are totally disabled, you may also apply for a waiver of premiums. For those veterans who are eligible for this waiver, additional coverage of up to $20,000 is available. You can also convert your SGLI insurance to Veterans' Group Life Insurance, which offers lifetime renewable term coverage at competitive rates. Also, Veterans' Mortgage Life Insurance is available to severely disabled veterans who receive a specially adapted housing grant from VA.

Home Loans

VA can guarantee part of a loan from a private lender to help you buy a home, a manufactured home, a lot, or certain types of condominiums. VA also guarantees loans for building, repairing, and improving homes. If you already have a mortgage, VA may be able to help you refinance your loan at a lower interest rate.
