

Angi Martin-Prudent, M.S., CCC-A/SLP

3030 13th Avenue
Moline, IL 61265
309.569.9535

almartpru@gmail.com

Education

Illinois State University, Normal Illinois
Doctorate of Education (August 2018)
Special Education

Western Illinois University, Macomb, IL
Non-Degree Certification (May 2004)
Speech Language Pathology

Western Illinois University, Macomb, IL
Master of Science (May 2001)
Communication Sciences and Disorders
Major: Audiology

Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, IL
Bachelor of Science (December 1998)
Communication Sciences and Disorders

Professional and Work Experiences:

Western Illinois University, Macomb, IL
Course Instructor/Clinical Supervisor (August 2006 - May 2010)
(August 2016 - present)

Academic Courses:

- CSD 312: Normal Language Development
Study of the development of speech and language from birth through six years of age
- CSD 380: Introduction to Articulation and Phonological Disorders
Study of articulation as a process-skill within a phonologic developmental perspective. Investigation of production, perception, evaluation, and management of children's articulatory disorders.
- CSD 484: Clinical Methods for Children's Language Disorders
Study of procedures for the evaluation and management of language disorders of children.
- CSD 494: Aural Rehabilitation I
History and development of methods of speech reading and auditory training. Multisensory approach to rehabilitation emphasized including specific procedures for handling impaired students in the classroom.
- CSD 512/514: Child Language Disorders: Assessment and Intervention
Explores conditions associated with communication impairment in children. Reviews clinical assessment and intervention techniques for child language disorders from infancy through adolescence. Communication analysis and intervention planning. Consideration of impact of communication impairment across environments.

- CSD 550: Audiology for the Speech Language Pathologist
Study of selected auditory disorders, screening procedures, and habilitation/rehabilitation approaches from a speech-language pathologist's perspective based upon the current scope of practice and research
- SPA 548: Articulation and Phonological Disorders
Study of the assessment and intervention methods for children with articulation and phonological disorders. Also includes study of etiology and characteristics as well as relevant anatomical, physiological, developmental, linguistic, cultural, and psychological correlates.

Clinical Supervision:

- CSD 488/588: Clinical Practicum in Speech Language Pathology
Supervised clinical practice in the speech-language-hearing clinic with children and adults having communication disorders
- CSD 499/599: Clinical Practicum in Audiology
Supervised clinical practice in the speech-language-hearing clinic with children and adults having hearing disorders

The Hearing Centers, Galesburg & Macomb, IL
Co-Owner/Audiologist (June 2001 – October 2015)

- Diagnostic evaluations of adult and pediatric population
- Hearing aid sales and aural rehabilitation
- Accounting, billing, receivables and insurance maintenance
- Marketing and advertisement coordinator in conjunction with business partner
- Provide in-services and hearing screenings at health fairs and health care facilities

Knox-Warren Special Education Cooperative, Galesburg, IL
Speech-Language Pathologist (August 2004 – June 2005; August 2010 – May 2011)

- Provided evaluation and remediation of various types of communication disorders for school-age children
- Developed Individualized Education Plans and coordinated meetings with parents and staff

Azer Clinic, Galesburg, IL
Speech-Language Pathologist - PRN (August 2005 - August 2009)

- Provided evaluation and remediation of various types of communication disorders and swallowing disorders for the adult population.
- Participated in patient care plan meetings and coordinated with other services to ensure patient needs were met.

Peter D. Hauslein, M.D., Galesburg, IL
Audiologist (June 2001 – December 2003)

- Diagnostic evaluations of adult and pediatric population
- Hearing aid sales and aural rehabilitation
- Maintained patient files and performed scheduling duties

Licensure, Certification, and Memberships

- American Speech-Language and Hearing Association
- Illinois Licensed Speech Language Pathologist
- Illinois Licensed Audiologist
- Certification of Clinical Competence (Audiology and Speech Language Pathology)
- Illinois Speech-Language Hearing Association

