

While mediation rules prohibit the public release of the details regarding the ongoing mediation sessions, the University's and the WIU UPI's negotiating teams have held two mediation sessions to date, with additional meetings scheduled. In the spirit of cooperation, the University is diligently working to prepare for, and participate fully, in the process.

More information on the current proposals and negotiations updates can be found at <http://www.wiu.edu/provost/negotiationsupdate.php>.
